

Youth Code of Conduct

Holy Trinity Lutheran Church

The purpose of our middle school ministry at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church is to help each person seek a deep, vibrant relationship with Jesus Christ.

I will always strive to conduct myself, and set an example for others, in a manner that would be pleasing to our Lord. As part of this pledge, I agree to the following:

1. I will strive to honor all people. The specific ways in which I will do this include:
 - Treating one another with respect .
 - Taking initiative to build good relationships.
 - Engaging in "random acts of kindness" .
 - Trusting.
 - Being respectful of the belongings of others
-Taking care of each other's "stuff".
 - Being honest.
 - Listening.
 - Having faith in others.
 - Using "good names" when referring to each other and speaking kindly both "to" and "about" others.
 - Using appropriate language -"no cussing" .
 - Sharing.
 - Looking at others when speaking to them .
 - Building each other up in every way possible.
 - Refraining from hitting, kicking, throwing of objects, improper exposure and improper touching.
2. I will participate in the program being presented. If changes are made, I will follow the decision of the majority or the adult leader.
3. I will not use tobacco products, alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, or someone else's prescribed medication.
4. I will clean up any mess that I make, as well as, volunteer to tidy-up joint use areas.
5. I understand there will be times to be loud and physical and times to be quiet. My conduct will be appropriate to the activity.
6. I will respect and take care of both our church property and the property wherever an event takes place.
7. I will also obey an adult sponsor's rules and directions specific to a given activity.

I pledge to follow this Youth Code of Conduct.
